

Appendix 1 – Service and Warranty Terms

1. Claims.

For Before initiating a warranty claim, Timan must be contacted, and the process agreed upon between the parties.

- A claim must not be initiated before Timan has issued a warranty claim number.
- In case of an urgent service call, Timan must be contacted at the earliest opportunity to agree on the next steps.
- Warranty claims may only be handled by an authorized Timan dealer.
- Warranty cases are managed in cooperation with the dealer to ensure a quick and efficient resolution.

2. Warranty Registrations.

All warranty registrations must be completed by the dealer using the invoice date from the dealer to the end customer.

Registration is done via the Forms form, accessible through the link on the dealer portal or by using the QR code found in all manuals supplied with the machine.

2.1 Warranty Terms for Demo Machines.

- A maximum warranty period of 24 months is provided for demo machines, calculated from the invoice date to the dealer.
- If the demo machine is sold after 9–12 months, a 12-month warranty is granted by Timan.
- If sold after 12 months, the warranty period is reduced by one month for each additional month the machine was in use before the sale.
- If the demo machine is rented out, a 12-month warranty applies from the invoice date to the dealer.

3. Compensation.

- Compensation is provided via credit note.
- The warranty claim part must be stored for a minimum of 6 months or sent to Timan upon request from Timan's service department.

4. Hourly Rate and Transportation.
